PROGRAMME SEPTEMBER 2025 - JANUARY 2026

WELCOME TO THE NEXT SEASON

The Winter Craft & Food Fair makes its highly anticipated return to the Burnavon Theatre in Cookstown on Saturday 22 November. Here you will discover an array of handmade festive foods and unique gifts in the run up to Christmas. From art, jewellery, and candles to delicious artisan foods, there really is something on offer for everyone.

One of the highlights of the season is the Christmas Celebration Concert which takes place on Friday 5 December. Malachi Cush, who wowed a sellout crowd last year, is returning with Catherine Grimley & Drummond String Quartet in 2025 to delight Burnavon audiences with his beloved selection of Christmas hits. Children from the Traditional Music in Schools Programme with Donald Canavan and Cookstown Youth Choir will also perform (both are supported through Mid Ulster District Council Arts Programme).

As always, there is a packed programme of workshops, exhibitions and events for families and several activities to celebrate Positive Ageing Month in October and Ulster-Scots Leid week in November. Mr Hullabaloo, the magical storyteller is back on-stage early December with 'Mr Hullabaloo's Winter Wonderland'. School performances for reception and primary classes will take place on Monday 8 and Tuesday 9 December.

Micky Bartlett is entertaining audiences with his brand-new show 'Rocket' on Friday 7 November. 'Paddy: The Life and Times of Paddy Armstrong' which tells his story, fifty years after his wrongful conviction, is coming to the Burnavon stage on Friday 28 November. Finally, Jake O'Kane 'Needs New Teeth Tour' is coming to the Theatre on Monday 29 December.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Burnavon Theatre this season.

Dubliner - The Luke Kelly Story

On January 30th, 1984, it is said that the whole of Ireland grieved the early death of Dubliner Luke Kelly. He has left an indelible mark as being the greatest folk artist of the 20th Century and his music is widely regarded as one of Ireland's cultural treasures. Created and performed by the renowned Dublin singer and multi-instrumentalist Chris Kavanagh, this 90-minute show with multi-vision background throughout brings the audience on a journey through Luke's music and has received rave reviews in Ireland and abroad. An overwhelming endorsement of authenticity is the huge number of followers and regular sell-out performances in Ireland's most prestigious venues such as The Cork Opera House, the Grand Opera House and Dublin's Vicar Street which was even attended by President Michael D Higgins & his wife Sabina.

Poetry with Angeline King

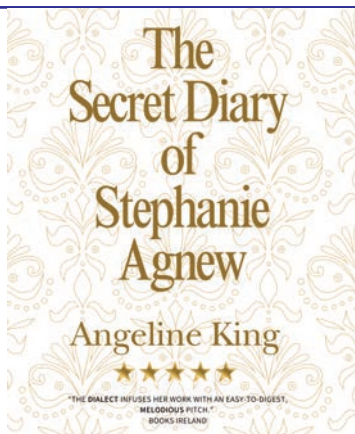

From Larne to Bellaghy - Ulster Scots poems with Angeline King

Celebrating Ulster-Scots Leid Week

Larne novelist Angeline King, author of 'Dusty Bluebells' and 'Snugville Street', brings a taste of her award-winning poetry to Mid Ulster. Writer in Residence of Ulster University from 2020 to 2023, Angeline has a keen interest in languages and local dialects. When commissioned to write an Ulster Scots poem for a Linen Hall Library Poetry Jukebox programme in 2025, Angeline wrote about Bellaghy's oldest known woman, Ballymacombs More Woman. This is one of several new poems inspired by the Bellaghy area. Angeline is the author of 5 novels, a children's illustrated book and a non-fiction history of Irish Dancing and has contributed to multiple anthologies and media articles.

A talk by Maura Johnston

Dialect and Local Sayings

Maura has lived in Moneymore for most of her life and is interested in local people, local places, and local history. Maura remembers life in a very different society from today. Her interests extend to local dialect and customs. She has written about both these. Maura will deliver two talks during the month of October.

Dialect and Local Sayings (2 October): In a world of rapid communication and global information, the local can often get lost. This talk will remind us of the richness and value of our local dialect and customs which form part of our identity.

Moneymore in the 1950s (16 October): A nostalgic look back at the village of Moneymore in the decade after WWII, revisiting the streets, the shops and the characters.

Patrick - Ulster's Scottish Saint

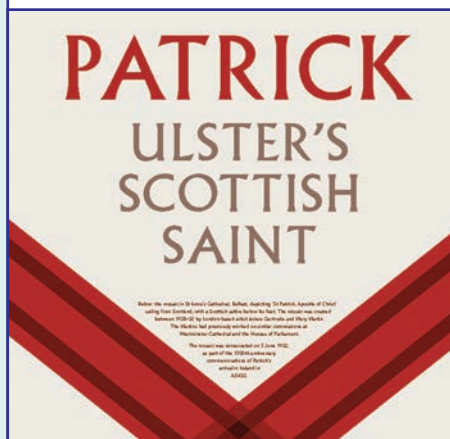

This exhibition is on loan from the Ulster-Scots Agency.

Patrick is known worldwide as the Patron Saint of Ireland, and for centuries the many Scottish traditions about his life and mission were very well known. However, placenames, people, connections and more, that persisted on both sides of the North Channel, have faded in more recent times. This exhibition aims to allow us to rediscover the shared stories of Patrick, Ulster's Scottish Saint.

On Tuesday 4 November, Nelson McCausland (Chairman of the Ulster-Scots Community Network) will deliver a FREE talk at 7.30pm exploring the life, work and message of Patrick, Ulster's Scottish Saint. Tickets must be booked in advance.

Presented by Maria Mitchell

Maria Mitchell Art Exhibition

"Art expresses an idea that cannot be conveyed by words alone".

Colour is the motivating theme behind each piece of artwork. Whether the land is under sunny or stormy brooding skies Maria will often try an imaginary use of colour to animate the subject matter. This exhibition uses local imagery and notable landmarks to set the scene and has been created to express rural Ireland, along with my figurative work which explores healing the inner child.

The paintings capture the joy and vitality of life which we all experience and transports the viewer to striking and beautiful rolling countryside, imbued with innocence, capturing a timeless world for us to absorb. Maria's art will be on display throughout the month of December 2025.
